

Seencamping Krauchenwies

Your 4-star-campsite in the Swabian Mountains

Seencamping Krauchenwies

Seencamping Krauchenwies is situated directly on the water's edge of the Ablacher See on a plain open countryside parcelled out through bushes and hedges.

The private-owned lake with lawn, pebble beach and bathing jetty is available for all camping guests for bathing and fishing.

Seencamping Krauchenwies offers 120 pitches for motorhomes and caravans and two meadows for tents.

Five „barrel hotels“, camping barrels, bungalows, holiday homes and several equipped rental tents complete our accommodation offer.

Facilities

The campsite offers a very groomed and as good as new sanitary area with single shower cubicles.

Moreover, there is a laundry with washing machines, dryers (chargeable), possibilities for washing up and a TV room.

For leisure activities you will find diverse fields for ball games and a newly designed children's playground on the campsite.

In our shop on site we offer icecream, snacks, coffee and cappuccino, drinks and all kinds of camping supplies.

The village of Krauchenwies provides all of basic supplies. You will find a supermarket, a butcher and a bakery. There are also a post office, a bank and several doctors.

Camping barrels & barrel hotels

For all who want to spend their camping holidays without their own tent or camper, Seencamping Krauchenwies offers various accommodations, among them our cozy camping barrels. You can expect a large bed and a sitting area, which can be converted into 2 more beds if required. Heating, storage space and lighting do complete our happy-go-lucky accommodation.

A non-everyday accommodation possibility are our barrel hotels. They have sleeps for 2 people and a storage space.

Bungalows & Holiday homes

For a comfortable holiday you can book one of our bungalows or holiday homes.

The bungalows do have a size of 36 m² and offer space for up to 2 people.

Our holiday homes offer sleeps for 4 resp. 6 people.

Alle bungalows and holiday homes have a terrace, partly with view of the lake, a living room, bathroom and a kitchenette with oven and sink.

They are completely stuffed out with tableware and cooking utensils. Bedding and towels are offered chargeably.

TV and W-LAN (chargeable) are available.

Lake activities

The Ablacher See is a private owned lake which has an excellent quality in water. The entire lake and extended parts of the shore are natural reserve.

The lake is exclusively available for our camping guests for bathing.

Fishing enthusiasts and owners of a fishing license under our camping guests can purchase daily fishing permits at our reception.

A walk around the lake or a bike ride on the many bike paths around the Ablacher See provide immediate recreation.

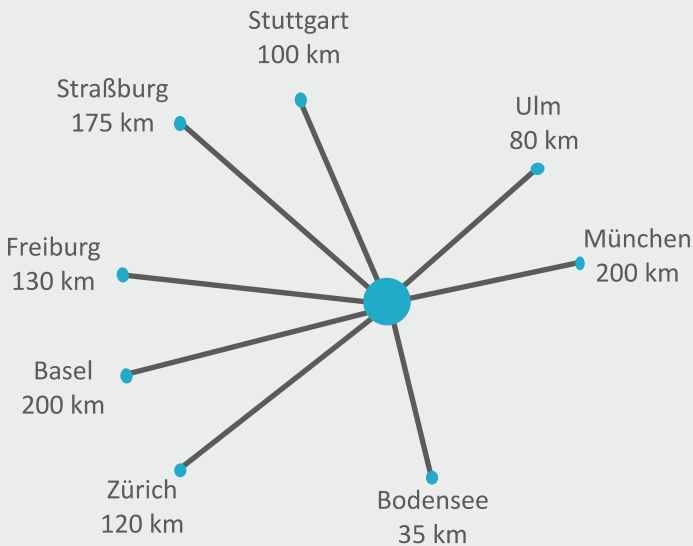

Other leisure activities

From Seencamping Krauchenwies it is only a short hop to the many leisure activities the Donautal, the Swabian Mountains and the Lake Constance are offering.

Enjoying the nature by climbing or canoeing in the Donautal or exploring many of the tourist attractions all around the "Zollernalb" like the fortress of Hohenzollern is easily possible for you. Only few kilometres away you can experience the middle age at Campus Galli.

Not less than 6 golf courses, 3 thermal baths, a horse ranch and a gliding and motor airfield near the campsite provide more variety for an active and recreational holiday.

Short access routes from Stuttgart, Ulm, Zürich or the Lake Constance are the reason why our campsite is an ideal destination even for a short trip over the weekend. You will find more current information at any time under www.seencamping.de. Come and see us soonish!
